BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

MUSIC DEPARTMENT

BUSINESS EDUCATION IS THE LIFEblood OF OUR ECONOMY. Business Education has always placed a strong emphasis on the application of the basic skills within the consumer and occupational areas being studied. Business Education is a very important and vital contributor to students' academic growth.

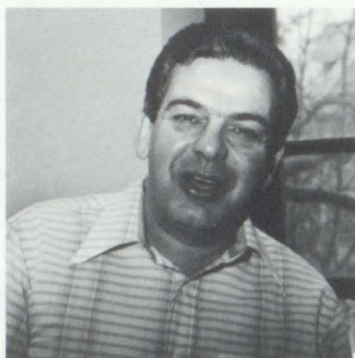

Business courses can make a difference because they establish standards for behavior and achievement which will serve to enhance each student's ability to work and learn in an orderly, organized, and purposeful atmosphere. These business-like attitudes coupled with skills acquired prepare our students to move into the real world of business with ease.

Students here at Shabazz are provided with exposure to a variety of learning activities such as speakers, field trips, competitions, career exploration, and the newly revised 'Shadowing' program. Our students learn how to prepare an effective letter of application, resume, job application form, and long-range career goals for themselves. They learn that business knowledge and skills provide them with an education that makes sense.

ENGLISH DEPARTMENT

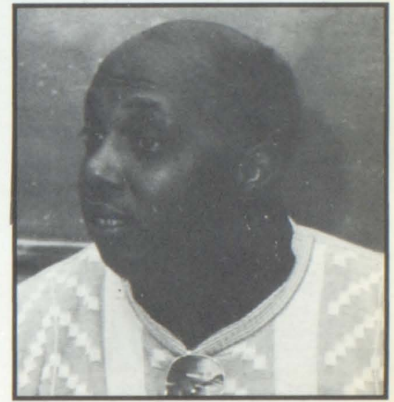

Mrs. Linda Bennett

Mrs. Vincendonna Davis

Mr. Joseph Brown

Mr. Robert Durkin

The English Department at Malcolm X Shabazz High School strives to provide each student with a basic, practical, and functional knowledge of the English language and its literature by the time he or she graduates. At each level, the English program builds on and incorporates the programs of previous grade levels.

Two of our major goals are to increase the percentage of students passing the communication segment of the HSPT and to improve the students' awareness of the important role that the English language and its literature play in their personal and career development.

MATH DEPARTMENT

The mathematics department attempts to expand the students ability to think critically through its various courses. It is the goal of the department to train each student to count, measure, and deal with higher order numbers and symbols. It is our belief that a sound foundation in mathematics will build a growing love for the understanding of modern science and afford our students the ability to become effective consumers.

SUPPORTIVE SERVICES

Guidance

The guidance program, which is centered around the students, is a unique and intricate part of the total school program. Its goals and objectives are based upon the premise that every student is a valued individual and should have an opportunity to realize maximum potential. Through counseling and the many services provided by the department the students are assisted in personal and social growth, career and academic planning, goal setting, and mastering the decision making process. These varied experiences prepare the students to choose a productive lifestyle for him/herself as well as the community.

“CRIME — NOT A PART OF OUR HERITAGE”

On Friday, February 19, 1988, the Bilalian Student Union hosted an assembly program as a followup to last year's program — “Crime — Not a Part of our Heritage”. Invited were representatives from the Police Department, the Division of Youth and Family Services, Planned Parenthood, and community religious groups to help our youth address issues including crime in our streets, violence and vandalism, and teenage parenting. It was Mrs. Witcher, BSU Adviser, concern that an exchange of ideas and suggestions would help to combat the rising crime in the city of Newark, and the surrounding communities.

Mrs. A. Davis, Head Guidance Counselor

"The Right Direction Makes All The Difference" was the theme chosen by Mrs. Davis, head guidance counselor, in observance of National School Counseling Week. All members of the staff were invited to a mini brunch in the guidance Career Resource Center to share ideals.

A Day With The General

The General poses with her sister and staff.

Brigadier General Clara L. Adams-Ender, sister of Mrs. Rosa Knight, a Shabazz math teacher, shared with the staff and students a message of hope and encouragement for the future of minority participation in American society. The general, who commands the Army Nurse Corps, advised our students to set positive goals for their future and to work diligently to accomplish them. She told the students to begin to appreciate the value of education and vision into the future. Her remarks were filled with encouragement for positive thinking and actions.

General Adams-Ender was received well by the students and staff alike. She left the students with the following poem as a foundation for continued encouragement . . .

YOU CAN — IF YOU THINK YOU CAN

IF YOU THINK YOU ARE BEATEN, YOU ARE.
IF YOU THINK YOU DARE NOT, YOU DON'T.
IF YOU'D LIKE TO WIN, BUT THINK YOU CAN'T,
IT'S ALMOST A CINCH YOU WON'T.

IF YOU THINK YOU'LL LOSE, YOU'VE LOST.
FOR OUT IN THE WORLD YOU'LL FIND; SUCCESS BEGINS WITH A PERSON'S WILL;
IT'S ALL IN YOUR STATE OF MIND.

FULL MANY A RACE IS LOST,
ERE EVEN A STEP IS RUN,
AND MANY A PERSON FAILS,
ERE EVEN THE WORK'S BEGUN.

THINK BIG AND YOUR DEEDS WILL GROW, THINK SMALL AND YOU'LL FALL BEHIND.
THINK THAT YOU CAN AND YOU WILL;
IT'S ALL IN YOUR STATE OF MIND.

IF YOU THINK YOU'RE OUTCLASSED, YOU ARE;
YOU'VE GOT TO THINK HIGH TO RISE.
YOU'VE GOT TO BE SURE OF YOURSELF BEFORE;
YOU CAN EVER WIN THE PRIZE.

LIFE'S BATTLES DON'T ALWAYS GO, TO THE STRONGER OR SWIFTER MAN.
BUT SOONER OR LATER THE ONE WHO WINS, IS THE ONE WHO THINKS THAT HE CAN.

MAN IN THE MIRROR

by Siedah Garrett and Glen Ballard

I'm gonna make a change,
for once in my life
It's gonna feel real good,
gonna make a difference
Gonna make it right ...
As I, turn up the collar on my favorite winter coat
This wind is blowin' my mind
I see the kids in the street, with not enough to eat
Who am I, to be blind?
Pretending not to see their needs
A summer's disregard,
a broken bottle top
And a one man's soul
They follow each other on the wind ya' know
'Cause they got nowhere to go That's why I want you to know
I'm starting with the man in the mirror
I'm asking him to change
his ways
And no message could have
been any clearer
If you wanna make the world
a better place
(If you wanna make the world a better place)
Take a look at yourself, and
then make a change
(Take a look at yourself, and
then make a change) (Na na na, na na na, na na, na nah)
I've been a victim of a selfish kind of love
It's time that I realize That there are some with no home, not a nickel to loan Could it be really me, pretending that they're not alone?
A willow deeply scarred,
somebody's broken heart
And a washed out dream
(Washed-out dream)
They follow the pattern of the wind ya' see
'Cause they got no place to be That's why I'm starting with me
(Starting with me!)
I'm starting with the man in
the mirror
(Ooh!)
I'm asking him to change

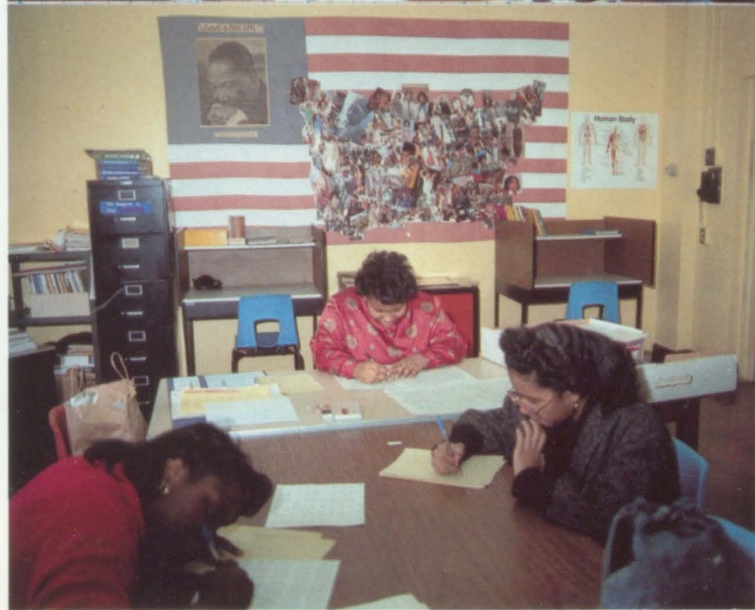

his ways
(Ooh!)
And no message could have
been any clearer
If you wanna make the world
a better place
(If you wanna make the world a better place)
Take a look at yourself and
then make a change
(Take a look at yourself and
then make a change)
I'm starting with the man in
the mirror
(Ooh!)
I'm asking him to change his ways
(Change his ways - Ooh!)
And no message could've
been any clearer
If you wanna make the world
a better place
(If you wanna make the world a better place)
Take a look at yourself and
then make that ...
(Take a look at yourself and then make that ...)
Change!
I'm starting with the man in
the mirror.
(Man in the mirror - oh yeah!)
I'm asking him to change
his ways
(Better change!)
No message could have
been any clearer
(If you wanna make the world a better place)
(Take a look at yourself and then make the change) (You gotta get it right, while you got the time) ('Cause when you close your heart)
You can't close your ... your mind!
(Then you close your ...
mind!)
That man, that man, that man, that man
With that man in the mirror
(Man in the mirror, oh yeah!)
That man, that man, that man
I'm asking him to change
his ways
(Better change!)
You know ... that man
No message could have
been any clearer

If you wanna make the world
a better place
(If you wanna make the world a better place)
Take a look at yourself and
then make a change
(Take a look at yourself and
then make a change)
Hoo! Hoo! Hoo! Hoo! Hoo!
Na na na, na na na, na na,
Gonna feel real good now!
Yeah yeah! Yeah yeah!
Yeah yeah!
Na na na, na na na, na na
na nah
(Ooooh ...)
Oh no, no no ...
I'm gonna make a change
It's gonna feel real good!
Come on!
(Change ...)
Just lift yourself
You know
You've got to stop it, Yourself!
(Yeah! - Make that change!)
I've got to make that change, today!
Hoo!
(Man in the mirror)
You've got to
You got to not let yourself ... brother ...
Hoo!
(Yeah! - Make that change)
You know - I've got to get that man, that man ...
(Man in the mirror)
You've got to You've got to move! Come on! Come on!
You got to ...
Stand up! Stand up!
Stand up!
Yeah! - Make that change)
Stand up and lift yourself, now!
(Man in the mirror)
Hoo! Hoo! Hoo!
Aaow!
(Yeah! - Make that change)
Gonna make that change ...
come on!
You know it!
You know it!
You know it!
You know ...
(Change ...)
Make that change.

A SHATTERED DREAM

*Losing ones place within a heart is a trauma one must face.
 Wondering will the love one had ever be replaced.
 Learning by one's mistakes is a hard way to live.
 Resentment, pain, grief, and misery is what one can give.
 When one gave into temptation,
 a loss therefore followed.
 Not only did one feel of betrayal
 but two hearts sulked in sorrow.
 Time provided for the breakage of two that resulted in a shattered dream.
 One now seeks the lost love
 one hopes to redeem.
 Though the two have united once again,
 it takes time for the pain to come to an end.
 The two have yet to come close to receive each others love.
 For if one does not reach the other,
 it is always to be shattered, that dream they dream of.*

TOP TEN

We the Class of 1988 would like to take this moment to congratulate and give thanks to two wonderful ladies, who have gone through hard times with us, especially during our junior year.

Mrs. Texanna Thompson

Ms. Marlene Bash

Mrs. Thompson and Ms. Bash, we, the senior class, have grown to appreciate and respect the two of you very much.

Sincerely,
Class of 1988

We the graduating class of nineteen hundred eighty eight, have tried to accomplish a job well done. Between our freshman and senior years, we have learned to be all that we could be and that a good education is our key to our future.

We now have fond memories of our High School years in which we laughed, cried, smiled, grew, and worked hard together. During the time we have spent in Shabazz High, we have successfully made "Our Grades" in order to obtain the title: The Graduating Class of 1988. Because we are very grateful, we would like to thank the teachers, faculty, vice-principals, and the principal, Mr. Mayes for encouraging us to be the best we could be.

As president of the senior class, I would like to wish the 1988 graduates the best of success & happiness in the future.

I now present to you the graduating class of 1988.

To Super homeroom 253, you are the greatest and have been for four years. As your homeroom teacher I have much love, adoration and the highest respect for you. I have watched you mature socially and academically. You have become well-rounded young adults. I am proud of you and I envision a bright future for each of you. Always strive for success, climb the "highest" mountain and reach that "unreachable" star. Since you are one "breath" in God's sphere and one "leaf" in His forest, may you walk with reason and move with passion.

CAN YOU IMAGINE . . .

Mr. Mayes with an Afro . . .
Shabazz's students all on honor roll . . .
Christ Brown getting a hair cut . . .
Tomeco Robinson without Hank Reeves . . .
Mr. Clark wearing a matching tie . . .
Mr. Mayes smiling everyday . . .
The students coming to school on time and studying . . .
Shabazz without graffiti . . .
Frank Streak not in the gym every period . . .
Mrs. Towe without her big hips . . .
Mr. Richacek in a new pair of pants . . .
Brian McCallum not clowning around . . .
Mr. Moor doing the Butt . . .
Boom having a baby . . .
Mrs. McKnight getting tongue tied . . .
Mr. Moore not telling his students a story every day . . .
Mr. J. E. Cook being President of the United States . . .
Mr. Davis not cracking corny jokes . . .
Alray Blackman with a curly kit . . .
A professional baseball player coming from Shabazz . . .
Vivian Welson coming to school everyday for a week . . .
A school library that is open when school is out . . .
No student getting pregnant before graduating . . .
The Class of '88 following instructions . . .
Mr. Mayes treating students like people . . .
The school with heat in the winter . . .
Security that do not keep students out of school . . .
A high school having a P.T.A. . . .

We, the Seniors of Malcolm X Shabazz H.S.

In order to form a more perfect school, establish justice, insure academic tranquility, provide for the student's defense, promote general education, and secure the Blessings of Liberty (from homework) to our posterity, do ordain and establish this document as

OUR LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We leave to . . .

*The Constitution of the United States of America;
a Happy 200th Birthday*

Mr. Ed, we leave our smartness on the court . . .

Mr. Salama, we leave a new tongue.

To Audry Palmer and Theresa Dawson, we leave our knowledge and best wishes.

To Mr. Oxford, we leave our weight watcher's plan.

We leave to Andre Taylor our most successful skills in football.

To our parents, we leave our self-respect for all the support and understanding they have given us.

We leave Malik Cox the skills to carry the Mighty Bulldogs to the top.

We leave the underclass the will to stay in school.

We leave Mr. Bowe the courtesy of all your students.

To Marlean Jackson we leave our brains and learning skills.

To Hassan Bennett, we wish the best of luck in the future.

To Mrs. Knight, we leave our thoughts and love with you.

To Mr. Kendrick, we leave our halls, please keep them clean. Thank You.

I, Cora Kerton, leave my charm and intelligence to Shawanda Mitchell.

To all of our fellow classmates, we leave the best of luck for the future.

To Shabazz, we leave our personality.

To the Class of 1989, we leave a hard time just like we had!

PRO-LINE HAIR PRODUCTS A COMMITMENT TO QUALITY

“When You Purchase Pro-Line Products, You’re Helping To Insure the Growth Of Our Black Community.”

Thank you for your purchases of the above Pro-Line products. As a Black-owned business, your commitment to Pro-Line enables us to help support the economic and social needs of our community.

Pro-Line has worked hard to build the economic strength of Black America. Although we have enjoyed continuous success over the years, we realize that without your support and confidence in Pro-Line products, our growth would not have been possible.

We proudly salute the ongoing efforts of organizations that, like Pro-Line, are committed to making the quality of life better for all.
